

“... in me You will display
Your goodness ...”

Prayer of the 9th hour

How could I forget?

(How could I forget, the One who died for me How could I forget His side that had to bleed) x2

He who saw me in my misery

so He came running to meet me

He who bought me and redeemed me

broke my chains and set me free

(How could I forget your kindness through the years Your right hand always reaching out to me) x2

How could I forget?

In my joys and in my sorrows, in all of lives storms You've become my friend and fortress,

You are the One to whom I call

(Help me Lord I want to lose myself in You All my pride has blinded me from seeing You.) x2

So I'll keep watching and praying

setting my eyes on You

Trusting in your sure promises

that You will be there for me soon

The prayer of Manasseh

“ O Lord Almighty, God of our fathers, of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and of their righteous seed, You Who have made heaven and earth with all their adornment, You Who have bound the sea by the word of your command, You Who have shut the deep, and sealed it with your fearsome and glorious Name, You at whom all things shudder, and tremble before Your power, for unbearable is the magnificence of Your glory, and not to be withstood is the anger of Your threat towards the sinners,

The prayer of Manasseh

and immeasurable and inscrutable in the mercy of Your promise, for You are the Lord Most High, compassionate, patient, and merciful, repenting from the evil deeds of people. You, O Lord, according to the fullness of Your clemency, promised repentance and forgiveness to those who have sinned against You, and in the fullness of Your mercies, You have appointed repentance for sinners toward salvation. Therefore, You, O Lord of the righteous, have not given repentance for the righteous, for Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, who had not sinned against You, but you have given repentance for me, the sinner. For I have sinned more than the number of sand of the sea; my lawless deeds are multiplied, O Lord, multiplied, and I am not worthy to look and see the heights of heaven because of the multitude of my unrighteous deeds. I am bent down by too many a bond of iron for the lifting of my head because of my sins, and there is no relief for me, for I have provoked Your wrath and done evil before You. I have set up abominations and multiplied provocations.

The prayer of Manasseh

The prayer of Manasseh

And now I bent the knee of my heart, begging for Your clemency. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I know my lawless deeds. I am asking, begging You: forgive me, O Lord, forgive me! Do not destroy me with my lawless deeds, nor for all ages keep angry with me, nor condemn me to the depths of the earth, for You, O lord are the God of those who repent. And in me You will display Your goodness, for my being worthy, You will save me according to Your great mercy.

The prayer of Manasseh

And I will praise You throughout all the days of my life, for all the power of the heavens sing Your praise.
For Yours is the glory, to the ages. Amen.

Prayer by St. Ephrem the Syrian

O Lord, Heavenly King, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, have compassion and mercy on Your sinful servant and pardon my unworthiness, and forgive me all the sins that I humanly committed today, and not only humanly but even worse than a beast - my voluntary sins, known and unknown, from my youth and from evil suggestions, and from my shamelessness, and from boredom. If I have sworn by Your Name or blasphemed it in thought, blamed or reproached anyone, or in my anger have detracted or slandered anyone, or grieved anyone, or if I have got angry about anything, or have told a lie, if I have slept unnecessarily, or if a beggar has come to me and I despised or neglected him,

Prayer by St. Ephrem the Syrian

or if I have troubled my brother or angrily argued with him, or if I have condemned anyone, or have boasted, or have been proud, or lost my temper with anyone, or if when standing in prayer my mind has been distracted by the glamour of this world, or if I have had depraved thoughts or have overeaten, or have drunk excessively, or have laughed frivolously, or have thought evil, or have seen the attraction of someone and been wounded by it in my heart, or said indecent things, or made fun of my brother's sin when my own faults are countless, or been neglectful of prayer, or have done some other wrong that I cannot remember - for I have done all this and much more - have mercy,

Prayer by St. Ephrem the Syrian

my Lord and Creator, on me Your poor and unworthy servant, and absolve and forgive and deliver me in Your goodness and love for men, so that, lustful, sinful and poor as I am, I may lie down and sleep and rest in peace. And I shall worship, praise and glorify Your most honorable Name, with the Father and His only-begotten Son, now and ever, and for all ages and to the ages of ages. Amen.
