

You showed your mighty strength and gained a glorious reputation!

Prayer of the 9th hour

Prayer of Baruch

O Lord Almighty, God of Israel, from the depth of our troubled, weary souls we cry out to You. Hear us, O Lord, and have mercy on us, because we have sinned against You. You reign as king forever, but we die and are gone forever. O Lord Almighty, God of Israel, hear our prayer. We are no better off than the dead. Our ancestors sinned against You, the Lord their God. They refused to obey You, and we are suffering the consequences of their sin. Forget the sinful things that our ancestors did in the past; at a time like this, think only of your power and reputation, for You are the Lord our God, and we will praise You. You have made us fear You, so that we might pray to You. Here in exile we will praise You because we have turned away from the sins of our ancestors. You have scattered us among the nations, and You have made them despise and curse us

Prayer of Baruch

You are punishing us for the sins of our ancestors when they rebelled against you, the Lord our God.

You, O Lord, are the God of Israel who brought your people out of Egypt with great power and with signs, miracles, and wonders. You showed your mighty strength and gained a glorious reputation, which is still recognized today. O Lord our God, we have sinned; we have been unfaithful; we have disobeyed all your commands. But do not be angry with us any longer. Here among the nations where you have scattered us, only a few of us are left. Listen to our prayer of petition, Lord, and rescue us for the sake of Your own honor. Let those who have taken us into exile be pleased with us. Then the whole world will know that You are the Lord our God and that You have chosen the nation of Israel to be Your own people.

My Lord Precious Jesus

Psalm Adam for the feast of the Ascension

Sing justly, with doxologies, to Jesus Christ, who is of authority.
Everyone praises, the Incomprehensible,
and the Invisible, our Savior Jesus.

+ For truly indeed, on this day,
the King of glory, ascended into the heavens.
+ For David has said, with the voice of the trumpet,
“Sing to Christ, with hymns.”

Because of the mysteries, the King of the ages,
has performed, He also spoke to them.
The Only-Begotten, said many things,
to His Apostles, after the Resurrection.

Psalm Adam for the feast of the Ascension

+ Behold “Do you have, anything to eat,
” they gave to Him, and He took and ate.

+ They gathered and gave Him, broiled fish,
and honeycomb, and He took and ate.

Jesus with His authority, blessed His Apostles,
and was taken by a cloud, and ascended into the heavens.

Jesus the true Lord, the King of heaven,
the true Light, ascended to heaven.

+ Luke has said, in the gospel,
and Matthew has said, with Mark also.

+ “No one has ascended, up into heaven,
except the One who came, down from heaven.”

Psalm Adam for the feast of the Ascension

“That is the Son of Man, who dwells in heaven, Jesus the Governor,” John has witnessed.

Blessed are You indeed, O Christ our Master,
upon the throne, of Your glory justly.

+ And He has taught, His Apostles,
until the day, wherein He ordered them.

+ Christ our King, after His Resurrection, appeared to them, and He ate with them.

Rejoice O believers, in the feast of the Only-Begotten,
who created the heavens, and all their hosts.

Praise the Lover of Man, the King of the ages,
who created man, in His likeness.

Psalm Adam for the feast of the Ascension

+ We pray to You, with an upright heart,
and ascribe unto You, spiritual praise.

+ O Son of God, guard us from inflation,
and death and earthquakes, and from persecutions.

This is the day, the Lord has made,
let us rejoice, and be glad therein.

Hail to the Resurrection, O Jerusalem and Zion,
and the mountain of the Ascension, and the mountain of Kranion.

+ O Savior of the world, at Your Coming,
save Your people, and bless Your inheritance.

+ O our Lord Jesus Christ, have compassion upon Your people, guard them in truth, in the Paradise.

Prayer by St Ephrem the Syrian

Praise to Him Who descended to us in human form! Praise to the Invisible One who became visible for our sake! Praise to the Eternal One Who tasted death for us! Praise to the Mysterious One Whom no mind can comprehend, and Who through His grace made Himself manifest by taking on flesh!

Blessed is He Whose good will brought Him to His mother's womb and bosom, to be born and reared! Blessed is He Who partook of death and thus granted life to mankind. Blessed is He Who made our flesh a dwelling place for His mysterious being. Blessed is He Who declared to us His mysteries in our own tongue. Praise to Him Who liberated us, having been bound for our sake. Glory to Him Who is plenteous in mercy, Who has redeemed us without taking anything in return.

Prayer by St Ephrem the Syrian

Praise to the Judge Who accepted condemnation for our sake.

Let us worship Him Who has enlightened our mind with His teaching and laid down a path for His word in our hearing. Let us give thanks to Him Who has grafted His fruit to our tree.

Praise to Him Who invisibly cultivates our spirit. Blessed is He Who attuned the senses of our spirit, that it might ever play songs of exaltation to Him on its lyre. Amen

Silent Personal Prayers

Conclusion of every hour

Have mercy on us, O God, and have mercy on us, who, at all times and in every hour, in heaven and on earth, is worshipped and glorified, Christ our God, the good, the long suffering, the abundant in mercy, and the great in compassion, who loves the righteous and has mercy on the sinners of whom I am chief; who does not wish the death of the sinner but rather that he returns and lives, who calls all to salvation for the promise of the blessings to come. Lord, receive from us our prayers in this hour and in every hour. Ease our life and guide us to fulfill Your commandments. Sanctify our spirits. Cleanse our bodies Conduct our thoughts. Purify our intentions. Heal our diseases. Forgive our sins. Deliver us from every evil grief and distress of heart. Surround us by Your holy angels, that, by their camp, we may be guarded and guided, and attain the unity of faith, and the knowledge of Your imperceptible and infinite glory. For You are blessed forever. Amen.
