Prayer of Daniel (Daniel 9:1-19)

“O Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy With those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments, we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and Rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments. Neither have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings and our princes, to our fathers and all the people of the land. O Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but to us shame of face, as it is this day to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem And all Israel, those near and those far off in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of the unfaithfulness which they have Committed against You.

“O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You.

Prayer of Daniel (Daniel 9:1-19)

To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him. We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets.

“As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us; yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities and understand Your truth. Therefore the LORD has kept the disaster in mind, and brought it upon us; for the LORD our God is righteous in all the works which He does, though we have not obeyed His voice. And now, O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and made Yourself a name, as it is this day we have sinned, we have done wickedly!

Prayer of Daniel (Daniel 9:1-19)

“O Lord, according to all Your righteousness, I pray, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people are a reproach to all those around us. Now therefore, our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his supplications, and for the Lord’s sake cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary, which is desolate. O my God, incline Your ear and hear; open Your eyes and see our desolations, and the city which is called by Your name; for we do not present our supplications before You because of our righteous deeds, but because of Your great mercies. O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name.”

The Monday Psalm

Thousands and thousands, and myriads of myriads, praise and glorify, my Lord Jesus.

Everyone who says, “My Lord Jesus,” is likened to a sword, casting down the enemy.

+ For truly, You were exalted,
in heaven, and on earth.

+ All the righteous people, who have pleased God,
meditated upon, the whole law.

And God is always, present before them,
and His holy name is always in their mouths.

Exceedingly great, are Your compassions,
O fair Judge, O my Lord Jesus.

You bound the heavens, and You came down to us.

+ As a true physician, and a healer,

Implant in us, an upright heart,

+ I entreat You, O my Lord Jesus,
to have mercy upon us, in Your kingdom.

Prayer by St Ephraim the Syrian

O Lord, Heavenly King, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, have compassion and mercy on Your sinful servant and pardon my unworthiness, and forgive me all the sins that I humanly committed today, and not only humanly but even worse than a beast - my voluntary sins, known and unknown, from my youth and from evil suggestions, and from my boldness, and from boredom. If I have sworn by Your Name or blasphemed it in thought, blamed or reproached anyone, or in my anger have detracted or slandered anyone, or grieved anyone, or if I have got angry about anything, or have told a lie, if I have slept unnecessarily, or if a beggar has come to me and I despised or neglected him, or if I have troubled my brother or quarreled with him, or if I have condemned anyone, or have boasted, or have been proud, or lost my temper with anyone, or if when standing in prayer my mind has been distracted by the glamour of this world, or if I have had depraved thoughts or have overeaten, or have drunk excessively, or have laughed frivolously, or have thought evil, or have seen the attraction of someone and been wounded by it in my heart, or said indecent things, or made fun of my brother's sin when my own faults are countless, or been neglectful of prayer, or have done some other wrong that I cannot remember - for I have done all this and much more - have mercy, my Lord and Creator, on me Your wretched and unworthy servant, and absolve and forgive and deliver me in Your goodness and love for mankind, so that, lustful, sinful and wretched as I am, I may lie down and sleep and rest in peace. And I shall worship, praise and glorify Your most honorable Name, with the Father and His only-begotten Son, now and ever, and for all ages. Amen.
